

Symposium on Researchers' Well-being

The improvement of researchers' well-being and research environment leads to better research outcomes and contributes to a better quality of life. Might you be interested in participating in a session where we collectively deliberate upon a creative environment and various states of mind, alongside a diverse cohort of researchers?

9/28 (Thu.) 10:30 - 12:00

TSUKUBA International Congress Center Room304/ Online

Click here to register

Registration required
Participation fee : free

- Keynote Lecture
“Well-being as a guide of research activities”
Junji Watanabe, NTT Communication Science Laboratories.
Senior Distinguished Researcher
- Panel Discussion
Considering researchers' Well-being and research environment and circumstances at the National/public Universities in Japan

Junji Watanabe
NTT Communication
Science Laboratories.
Senior Distinguished Researcher.
Well-being, Haptics.
Speaker & Panelist

Manabu Shiraiwa
University of California,
Irvine.
Professor.
Atmospheric Science,
Environmental Chemistry
Speaker & Panelist

Amarjargal Dagvadorj
Breathe Mongolia
- Clean Air Coalition
"Let's take action" project.
Director.
Health Policy, Maternal & Child Health, Pandemic
Preparedness.
Speaker & Panelist

Ryuma Shineha
Osaka University.
Associate Professor.
Science and Technology
Studies, Science and Technology Policy.
Panelist

UMETSU Shizuko
University of Tsukuba.
Assistant Professor.
Comparative Education.
Moderator.

Deokje Kim
Loftwork Inc.
Producer
Speaker & Panelist